About Us

Bringing the best food, drink and entertainment to your doorstep

We have over 15 years experience in hosting events and six years of dedicated food festivals behind us.

The Local Food Festival brand started life back in 2016 after having successfully held The Surrey Food Festival at Old Deer Park, Richmond. Since then, additional festivals have been added to the calendar with the Middlesex Food Festival in 2018, Chilli & Beer Festivals in 2019, additional venues in 2022 and now Beer & Music dedicated festivals.

The Local Food Festival is the brainchild of Steve O'Neill who, with his like-minded team, have the same vision; to bring local communities together for an affordable, family-friendly, exciting, fun-filled event.

Steve O'Neill takes a hands-on approach, making sure vendors and attendees have the best experience possible at all of our festivals

Why People Love Us

We love what we do as much as we do food

LOCALS LOVE US
Keeping our festivals close to home, we work hard to deliver the best experience, both for our local traders and attendees.

DIFFERENCE
Although we focus on the food, we look to put on the best events by providing a varied repertoire.

Well Rated
Our events are extremely well attended - and just as highly rated. The regular attendance of many vendors and attendees is proof of our success. In fact, many vendors sign up to the whole year of events.

BRAND ENGAGEMENT
Over the years our brand has gained a loyal following and respect. It is therefore ideally placed to introduce brands we trust to our clientele.

Our Food Festivals

Fun, food and entertainment for the whole family

Always with food the centre of focus, we also like to add a little twist to our festivals to keep things interesting, and in some cases a little spicy. That's with varied musical and dance acts, chilli-themed or meat-centric stands or enjoying a huge selection of great British beers.

At our chilli-themed festivals, we swap our chefs' demonstration tent for a chilli eating competition and welcome everything hot and spicy accross all our vendors. Our beer themed festivals enhance our usual bars with a dedicated beer tent packed to the rafters with craft beers, ales and ciders.

The Surrey Food Festival

30 - 31 July - Old Deer Park, Richmond
This is where our 'The Local Food Festival' story started back in 2016. The original and still the best.

The Middlesex Beer Festival

19th - 20th August - The Orchard, Bedfont
A large range of ales to try, a Pimms bar, prosecco bar, cider bar, rum bar and of course a Gin bar will be on offer.

The Surrey Chilli Festival

17 - 18 September - Walton on Thames Cricket Club
A huge choice of food and drink stalls with hot and spicy chillies rearing their heads for an appearance, with chilli eating comps.
